Objectives of the Event	To learn acting skills To learn the group dynamics To learn the anchoring skills To learn the programme organising skills To appreciate the literary works
Description of the event	Students from Encore English Club, a literary wing of the Dept. of English enacted a One-act play titled "The Refund" written by Fritz Karinthy, a Hungarian writer on 16th December 2022. Students from all four houses of the club participated enthusiastically. The play was enacted under the guidance of the club coordinator Dr. P. Padma Priya. The play was witnessed by Dr. I. Vijaya Babu, principal, Dr. P. Jaya, vice-principal, Dr. K. Ravi Babu, IQAC Coordinator, Dr. Ch. Lalitha, the Academic Coordinator, Dr.V. Sudheer and by faculty members of all the Departments and students. Wasserkopf, a forty-year-old man disgusted with life, visits his school and demands the Principal to refund the fee paid him 18 years back. The teachers cleverly manipulated the scenario and sent him back by proving that he was provided with a good education.
Outcomes of the Event	Students have learned to act with determination and patience. They have learnt time management skills and group dynamics. They have organised and anchored the entire programme under the guidance of the coordinator. They have enjoyed enacting the one-act play The Refund.
