

Dept of Botany and Haritha Krishna Eco club Celebrated World Forest day and created awareness among students about importance, sustainable utilization and conservation of forests. Students participated in poster making competition.

