

The Mission of the Department

The Department of Physics strives to impart quality education both in theoretical and experimental physics through effective Teaching Learning process and to offer state of the art Certificate Programmes, Academic Courses in Basic and Applied Physics and in interdisciplinary areas.