

Department of Botany

Awards to students by Botany Department Faculty

The awards to the meritorious students are given by Botany Department faculty in every year. This practice has been implemented by department of Botany since 2009 to students who performed well in the year end/semester end examinations. The students are recognized, appreciated and motivated in class room gatherings so as to enable many other students to get these awards.

Objectives

- To instill positive competitive spirit in students
- To motivate the students strive for excellence in academics.
- To recognize the outstanding academic achievements of students.
- The awards and recognition builds confidence in students to achieve more in life.

Practice
