

The Vision of the Department

The Department of Physics is committed to impart state of the art knowledge in all aspects of Physics to develop a scientific temper and skills in students to excel high qualities required in academic, industries and research organizations for the socio-economic development of the Nation.